

THE FEDERATION

INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC SPEAKING SUMMIT

EVENTS OVERVIEW

About The Federation

- The Federation is one-of-a-kind organisation founded in June 2016. The organisational setup comprises of young visionaries who see potential in the future of public speaking, and seek to revolutionize the way they are organized within the nation.
- The Federation through its collaboration with various premier institutions, ensures that these institutions which conduct various public speaking events at their level meet the standards of the ones conducted at the global level.
- The Federation in it's latest initiative is in the process of inventing new forms of debating.
- The team equips the institution, the participating students, and other staff members with the latest criteria, structures and other essential requisites needed for a successful public speaking summit. The knowledge acquired consequently, is spread to other organisations such that Indian public speaking competitions become a worthy medium of learning.
- The Federation also works to promote international connectivity by entering into collaborations with institutions organizing MUNs at a global level. Since its inception the organization has established operations in a number of Indian states as well as abroad, and has expanded to accommodate a variety of departments such as Model United Nations Conference, Youth Parliament, International Press, Conventional debating.

INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC SPEAKING SUMMIT

“The celebration of public speaking” : The International Public Speaking Summit is the organization’s brainchild. The aim of the summit in itself signifies “Review, Resolve and Reform”

Review

A review of the structure of current public speaking events conducted.

Resolve

A resolve to provide participants with a memorable debating experience.

Reform

A reform of various public speaking events to resemble the standards of competitions conducted internationally.

It seeks to be a summit that will come to stand for ingenuity and excellence, and will redefine the standards of debate competitions. It is expected to be an amalgamation of fierce discussion and intellectual projection, that will contribute to knowledge expansion amongst the youth.

YOUTH PARLIAMENT

Youth Parliament is a simulation of the Indian committees where participants represent distinct portfolios belonging to different political parties.

RAJYA SABHA

We are also in touch with certain stakeholders so that we can also simulate regional youth parliament committees in the state's local language.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Model United Nations (MUNs) is a simulation of actual United Nations. Participants represent countries and debate on agendas related to a particular committee.

Participants perform research on their respective countries, agendas, committees, mandate of the committees in order to reach end documentation in the form of a resolution, report, press release or communique.

JUST A MINUTE

Do you think you can speak for a minute without hesitating? This is the event for you in that case!

Every round has 5 participants, each participant is given a topic on the spot and has to speak on this topic for 1 minute without stammering or repeating points in the speech.

1 Point

For every 10 seconds completed without any interruption

1 Point

In case of a successful tap, the participant gets 1 point and subsequently more points for every 10 seconds completed

1 Point

In case of an unsuccessful tap, the participant originally giving the speech gets 1 point

Entry to Next Round

In case the participant completes the speech without any interruption, the participant automatically qualifies for the next round

5 Points

In the final, if a participant completes the speech without any interruptions, the participant gets 5 points

SPEAKING TO PERSUADE

Think you can convince the audience and sell your idea? This event is for you in that case!

The participants will be judged on the basis of how well can they sell an idea to the judges.

Topics will be based around areas where participants have to convince the judges to believe in their argument/product/idea.

ROUND - 1

3 Minutes Speech

In the first round, the participant will be given a topic a month prior to the competition and has to give a speech on the same for 3 minutes.

ROUND - 2

2 Minutes Speech

In the second round the participant is given a topic and 15 minutes to prepare on it. The participant has to give a 2 minutes speech on the same.

ROUND - 3

2 Minutes Speech

In the final round the participant will be given the topic on the spot and has to give a speech about the same for 2 minutes.

SPEAKING TO INFORM

The purpose of this event is to put emphasis on knowledge dissemination and clarity of thoughts.

The participants have to give a comprehensive account of the topic and present information with utmost clarity.

ROUND - 1

3 Minutes Speech

Participants will be given a topic prior to the competition and have to prepare a 3 minutes speech on the same.

POLICY DEBATING

Policy debate focuses on the advocacy of a plan or policy action. The affirmative team should outline the harms in the current system or some sort of need. Then they should present a policy that would satisfy the need they have outlined. In addition the affirmative may discuss additional advantages to the policy.

1 VS 1 STYLE OF DEBATING

This is the creation of The Federation.

The participants can be given any topic ranging from politics to sports, cinema, fictional concepts.

Both the participants will be given 3 topics each.

They have to Ban 1 topic each and the remaining topic will be discussed.

BLOCK AND TACKLE

One speaker speaks both for and against the motion.

Time: 4 Minutes

The speaker starts by defending the motion.

BLOCK

The speaker must quickly shift his stance and speak against the same motion when the moderator says “block”.

TACKLE

When the moderator says “tackle” the speaker will again have to speak in favour of the motion.

The number of times the speaker shifts his/her stance in the 4 minutes depends on the discretion of the moderator.

OPEN CATEGORY

- This will be the competition to determine the overall category champion.
- Participants will go through multiple rounds of the above mentioned events.
- At each stage, certain number of participants will be eliminated.
- 2 best speakers will battle for the title of 'BEST PUBLIC SPEAKER'.

MONOLOGUE THIS!

This is a spin off from stand up comedy

Participants can refer to popular talk show hosts for reference ( Trevor Noah, Stephen Colbert, Jimmy Kimmel, etc)

Keep in mind that this is not a news delivery, the participant is assessed based on how entertaining, funny and witty she/he is.

NEWS CLIP

A fabricated news clip will be given to the participant 1 hour prior to the event.

MONOLOGUE

A monologue has to be delivered based off the clip given

AIRCRAASH

Participants will be divided into sub groups based on their preference ( football, marvel, etc)

The most witty, funny and entertaining participant shall be deemed the winner

REAL LIFE CHARACTER

A character or a real life person from the group will be assigned to the participant on spot

IMITATE

The participant will have to step into the shoes of the character assigned to them and answer every question as their role demands

AIRCRAASH

There will be an emergency aircrash round where the participant convinces the judges as to why they deserve to get a parachute and save themselves

STORYFYING

Each participant will get 45 seconds to speak in both round 1 and finals.

Round 1

In the first round, groups will be formed consisting of 5 participants in each group. The judge will give different storylines to each group. 2 winners from each group will go for the final round.

Finals

In the final round, all the winners will play on the common storyline as provided by the judge. Every participant will be asked to continue the story in different genre which will be told by the judge on the spot.
